CHECKLIST:

Build a Baseball Stadium

- ✓ On time and on budget
- ✓ Employs hundreds of D.C. residents in family-supporting construction jobs
- ✓ Offers free training that leads to careers

"My future is better because of the stadium work. I have gained more skills and experience to compete for jobs in the future."

Niesha Harris, 29 years old, DC resident and mother of one

Who could be against it? It's as simple as ABC...A front group called the DEEC, or D.C. Economic Empowerment Coalition claims to stand for DC families and helping minorities but they are heavily funded by ABC, the Associated Builders & Contractors. ABC aims to drive down living standards for construction workers and reduce opportunities for minority contractors. D.C. residents say... Let's keep a good thing going for District families!

LIUNA!
