

BERGER-MARKS 'EMERGING UNION WOMEN ACTIVIST' SPONSORSHIP 2011 UALE NORTHEAST REGIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL FOR UNION WOMEN

The Berger-Marks Foundation and the Northeast Regional Summer School for Union Women will sponsor FOUR emerging union women activists to attend the 2011 UALE Northeast Regional Summer School for Union Women. The sponsorship is part of the foundation's commitment to encourage the next generation of union women activists. Specifically the sponsorship is focused on young women who are just starting their careers and involvement in the U.S. labor movement. The Berger-Marks Foundation will cover the registration costs ($580) plus reasonable travel costs (up to $150) on behalf of the sponsorship recipient. For more information about the Berger Marks-Foundation and their current initiatives, please visit their website (<http://www.bergermarks.org/>).

To apply please return the following form no later than June 10th to Donna Schulman, SMLR, Rutgers, 50 Labor Center Way, New Brunswick, NJ 08901. After receiving your completed application, Donna will forward the application to the Berger-Marks Emerging Union Women Activist Sponsorship Committee. The recipient of this sponsorship will be notified by July 1st or earlier. Please call or email Donna with any questions regarding this sponsorship (dlschulman@work.rutgers.edu or 732-932-9608).
